DETAILED ACTION

Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Specification

The title of the invention is not descriptive. A new title is required that is clearly indicative of the invention to which the claims are directed.

Claim Objections

Claims 2 and 3 are objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c), as being of improper dependent form for failing to further limit the subject matter of a previous claim. Applicant is required to cancel the claim(s), or amend the claim(s) to place the claim(s) in proper dependent form, or rewrite the claim(s) in independent form. These claims attempt to further define the operation of the characteristic determining means by using the phrase "... is arranged for ...". However, what such arrangement encompasses or is, is not defined by these claims.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

1. Claims 1-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter, which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention.

In particular, applicants' disclosure is predicated upon the ability of waiting a predetermined amount of time – in order to make the appropriate determination of the beta value. However, no such time has been disclosed. Since the examiner concludes that such stabilization is predicated upon a plethora of parameter, none the least the chemical nature of the record medium, and no such materials have been disclosed, the specification is insufficient/incomplete.

The dependent claims fall accordingly.

2. Claim 9 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, The specification does not enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected. Claim 9 is a single means claim – see In re Hyatt 218 USPQ 195.

As far as the claims recite positive limitations, the following art rejections are made.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claims 1-5, 6-8, 10-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by either Matsumoto reference ('572, '600).

With respect to the independent claims, either of the above noted systems, disclose appropriate characteristic determining elements for discovering/determining the characteristics (beta value) of the record medium after a previous opc function was performed. Hence, a predetermined time has elapsed as required by applicants.

With respect to the various speed/velocities, both of the above systems are so arranged.

The method claims fall when the above systems operate.

Art Unit: 2627

The power levels are changed accordingly to ensure proper signal reproduction by reducing the jitter by varying the measured beta value.
